

SEB Fund 1 – SEB Nordic Equity Fund gets a new investment objective and name

- The Luxembourg-domiciled sub-fund, SEB Nordic Equity Fund, will be modified to have sustainability as its objective, thus adhering to Article 9 of SFDR. In order to reflect the new objective, the sub-fund will change its name to SEB Nordic Future Opportunity Fund. The changes that are described take effect 07/09/2022.
- The sub-fund will apply a thematic investment approach.
 - Focus on specific themes, such as energy transition, resource efficiency and circularity, sustainable mobility, healthy societies, and those that are deemed to contribute to the sub-fund's sustainability objective, and are aligned with the Paris Agreement, UN SDGs, EU Taxonomy, and/or EU Green Deal long-term objectives.
- The sub-fund will continue to be managed with a fundamental strategy by our seasoned Swedish & Nordic Equity team.
 - Caroline Forsberg and Robert Vicsai will be responsible for the management of the fund. Forsberg has a background as an Equity Analyst and Portfolio Manager, and has 25+ years' industry experience, while Vicsai has 20+ years' industry experience with sustainability investments as a focus area.
 - The Swedish & Nordic Equity team consists of 12 investment professionals located in Stockholm, Helsinki and Copenhagen.
- The investment universe will predominantly remain in the Nordic region, but the sub-fund's investment universe will expand to include small companies to an exposure of 35%.
- New fee structure: Lowering of the management fee for all share classes, while a performance fee of maximum 15% above the VINX Benchmark Cap Net Return Index is implemented.

Warning: Past performance is not indicative of future results. The value of investments and income derived from investments may rise as well as fall. Future returns are not guaranteed, and a loss of principal may occur. The fund's value may vary significantly due to the composition and the management methods used by the fund company.
